PCDC co-hosts a celebration of Black & Asian joy to help bridge gap between communities

Center City, Fashion District — On Friday, April 8th 2022, PCDC co-hosted "All in the Family", one of the largest Black and Asian solidarity events that Philadelphia has seen, bringing together two communities through food, music, art and most importantly, a panel discussion on how to move forward together. Over 250 people attended the event and 15 Asian and Black artists showcased their art and performed on stage. The event was featured on 6abc Action News.

The Chinese Immigrant Families Wellness Initiative (CIFWI) at PCDC co-organized the event with YING, Inc., a peer-to-peer skill sharing platform led by Karla Ballard. "We decided to launch an effort and not just talk about it amongst ourselves, but to be about it," said Ballard during an interview with 6abc news station.

The event is the fruit of over 8 months of grassroots organizing since August 2021.

During this period of time, a small group of leaders from both communities spent time building mutual understanding and engaged in dialogues about the common challenges that our communities face. One of the catalysts for this ongoing effort was the incident that unfolded on SEPTA last fall when a group of Asian students were attacked by a group of African American girls. “All in the Family” created the opportunity to include more people in this growing work to bridge the gap between communities.

"For folks who’ve never had a personal relationship with people from the other communities, maybe this is the first time. To know what it looks like and feels like. That is my main hope," said Castillo.

Jeannine Kayembe-Oro, a local artist who is half Asian and half Black, helped brand the event “All in the Family” by bringing together her Black and Asian heritage. "Black and Asian solidarity is this moment..." (Continued)
...It was the organizing of this event." said Kayembe-Oro. "The Black and Asian solidarity that manifested in saying how we can bring our community together. That’s the solidarity right there."

During the event’s panel discussion, John Chin, Executive Director of PCDC, Stephanie Sun, Executive Director of Governor Wolf’s Advisory Commission on Asian Pacific American Affairs, Karla Ballard, Founder & CEO of YING, and Alex Peay, Founder & CEO of One’s Up engaged in a dialogue about the inequities that Asian and Black communities have faced and how our communities can work together to build a prosperous future. The panel discussion was moderated by Esther Castillo, Programs Manager at PCDC.

“We need all of us coming together, people who come from different communities,” said Chin. “We need to start thinking about us as one community, working together for the betterment of people of color.” During the panel, Sun encouraged everyone to exchange contact information with at least two attendees and get to know each other as people.

“This [event] is what we need to have. People from different backgrounds, different cultures—come together and share what we have,” said Peay. “I’m hoping that this is just the beginning.”

Romana Lee-Akiyama, Director of the Mayor’s Office of Public Engagement and Kia Ghee, Director of the City’s Commission on Human Relations came to support the event by speaking about the resources that the City provides to promote cooperation and equality.

We would like to thank all the attendees and supporters as well as artists and musicians who brought joy and festivity to the event. Thank you to the amazing performers who brought light and energy into the space: DJ Yolo Ono; REGO; Rae.Dianz; Sheena Sood; Kam DeLa; and Joey Stix. Thank you to participating artists: Catzie Vilayphonh; Eileen Tran; Jie Kuang; Kelly Lan; Lanica Angpak; Nefertiti; Melanie Rodriguez; and Ta Mitchell.

We are grateful to our friends and community partners who attended in support: Christina Lu; PHL Youth; Philly Teen Vaxx; Asian Americans United, API Pennsylvania; National Association of Asian American Professionals Philly Chapter; and Central Division Victim Services.

Special thanks to REC Philly, who provided the venue for us to host the event as well as staff support, Yakitori Boy and Tea Do (Chinatown), who donated food and drinks, Philly Solidarity volunteers, and Philly Counts and Philadelphia Department of Public Health who offered PPE for all the attendees.

Take a sneak peek behind the scenes of our upcoming mini documentary highlighting Asian American identity and lived experience coming in May!

Dr. Esther Castillo, project manager for PCDC’s Chinese Immigrant Family Wellness Initiative has partnered with Doc Society Good Pitch Philadelphia to expand upon PCDC’s pilot program Asian American Racial Healing & Mindful Transformation (AARHMT) to address racial trauma in the API community.

Did you know: In the U.S., AAPIs have the lowest mental health service utilization rate across all racial groups. More recently, these issues are also compounded by anti-Asian violence. This program is one of the first community-based and mindfulness-centered programs to address racial trauma for AAPIs nationwide.

The short film will tell the story of AARHMT participants as they embark on the journey of racial healing for the very first time.

Keep an eye out for more updates!

The Philadelphia Department of Revenue will prevent your Real Estate Tax bill from increasing if you meet certain age and income requirements. Under the Real Estate Tax freeze, the amount of property tax you pay each year will not increase, even if your property assessment or the tax rate changes. If your tax liability decreases due to a lower property assessment or a tax rate decrease, the amount of Real Estate Tax you owe will also be lowered to the new amount.

Homestead Exemption

If you own your primary residence, you are eligible for the Homestead Exemption on your Real Estate Tax. The Homestead Exemption reduces the taxable portion of your property’s assessed value. With this exemption, the assessed value of the property is reduced by $45,000. Most homeowners will save about $629 a year on their Real Estate Tax bill. Once the City accepts your application, you never have to reapply for the exemption. You will receive property tax savings every year, as long as you continue to own and live in the property. Apply Here: shorturl.at/hrvE7

Low-income Senior Citizen Real Estate Tax Freeze

The Philadelphia Department of Revenue will prevent your Real Estate Tax bill from increasing if you meet certain age and income requirements. Under the Real Estate Tax freeze, the amount of property tax you pay each year will not increase, even if your property assessment or the tax rate changes. If your tax liability decreases due to a lower property assessment or a tax rate decrease, the amount of Real Estate Tax you owe will also be lowered to the new amount. Apply Here: shorturl.at/dgnGl

Set up an Owner-occupied Real Estate Tax Payment Agreement (OOPA)

The Owner-Occupied Payment Agreement (OOPA) program allows homeowners to make affordable monthly payments on property taxes that are past due. To be eligible, you must live in the home that you own. If your name is not on the deed to the home you live in, but you have a legal interest in the property, you may also be eligible. To stay eligible, your’re required to pay all new property taxes as they become due. However, some participants may be able to roll new property taxes into their existing agreement. Some low-income and senior residents are eligible for OOPAs with a $0-minimum monthly payment. You don’t need to make a down payment to sign up for an OOPA. A trust can sometimes be eligible for OOPA. The Department of Revenue’s legal team reviews OOPA applications submitted by trusts, and may request additional information as part of the process. Learn More: shorturl.at/pxR23

Philly's Eviction Diversion Program will be extended through 2022

The City of Philadelphia’s Eviction Diversion Program enables landlords and tenants to arrive at an agreement that works for both parties, without having to go to Court. This program is required as of January 1, 2022 by City Ordinance # 210920. Benefits of diversion and mediation include helping tenants avoid an eviction, while also helping landlords avoid vacancies and unit turnover costs.

The Eviction Diversion Program is free for both landlords and tenants. To schedule a mediation, landlords must first submit an application through the web portal: https://eviction-diversion.phila.gov/#/LandlordApplication

獲得宅基地豁免
如果您擁有自己的主要住所，則您有資格獲得房地產稅的宅基地豁免。Homestead Exemption減少了您的財產評估價值的應稅部分。有了這項豁免，該物業的評估價值減少了45,000美元。大多數房主每年將節省約629美元的房地產稅賬單。一旦我們接受您的申請，您就無需重新申請豁免。只要您繼續擁有並居住在該房產中，您每年都會獲得房產稅減免。申請: shorturl.at/hrvE7

低收入長者不動產稅凍結
如果您滿足特定的年齡和收入要求，費城稅務局將阻止您的房地產稅賬單增加。在不動產稅凍結下，即使您的財產評估或稅率發生變化，您每年繳納的財產稅金額也不會增加。如果您的納稅義務由於較低的財產評估或稅率降低而減少，您所欠的房地產稅金額也將降低到新的金額。申請: shorturl.at/dgnGI

建立業主自用房地產納稅協議 (OOPA)
業主自住付款協議(OOPA)計劃允許房主以負擔得起的每月支付逾期的財產稅。要符合資格，您必須住在您擁有的房屋中。如果您的姓名不在您所居住房屋的契約上，但您對該房產有合法權益，您也可能符合資格。

费城华埠发展会（PCDC）共同举办了“全家福”活动，这是费城所见过最大的黑人和亚裔人团结合活动之一，活动通过美食、音乐、艺术和小组讨论将两个社区团结起来，改善和创建和谐社区。活动超过250人参加，包括15名亚裔和黑人艺术家和音乐家，他们在活动中展示艺术品和表演歌曲，美媒6abc新闻台对活动在电视上进行了专题报道。PCDC移民家庭情绪健康计划（CIFWI）与由Karla Ballard领导的点对点技能共享平台YING, Inc.协办公作。

PCDC移民家庭情绪健康计划（CIFWI）项目经理郑晓彤说：“对于那些从未与其他社区的人建立过友谊的人来说，这也许是第一次，了解与另一个社区建立友谊是怎么样的，这是我的希望。”
