Business size, stage, and industry: Start-ups and qualifying established businesses, with a strong mission focus on minority entrepreneurs and economically disadvantaged firms. Services span industries; specialized centers focus on small-to-medium construction, construction management, professional services, janitorial trades, infrastructure opportunities, and culinary businesses.

SERVICES AND BUSINESS HELP

- Hands-on, one-to-one consulting in sales, business development, accounting and finance, taxes, digital marketing, and business systems.
- Procurement assistance, bid preparation, and connections to more than 100 corporate and institutional procurement partners.
- Specialized centers and initiatives for construction, infrastructure, food/culinary businesses, creative businesses, and disadvantaged firms.

FOOD BUSINESS SUPPORT

The Dorrance H. Hamilton Center for Culinary Enterprises (CCE) is The Enterprise Center's commercial kitchen and food-business incubator. It supports restaurants, caterers, bakers, packaged-food producers, food-truck operators, and other food entrepreneurs by providing licensed commercial kitchen space, dry and refrigerated storage, product development assistance, production support, business and technical advising, connections to wholesale buyers and industry partners, and food-truck business training.

FUNDING DETAILS

DIRECT FUNDING: The Enterprise Center Capital Corporation offers microloans and traditional small-business loans up to $500,000 for start-ups and qualifying established businesses. Specialized funds have separate terms—for example, the Plenary Fund publishes amounts up to $40,000 for eligible local food and concession businesses. Applicants begin with a client inquiry.
